As we approached God in silence, let us give thanks to him in silence as
The Bible is taken from the Sanctuary.

Hymn 1 CH4 57
The Lord doth reign, and clothed is he

with majesty most bright;
his works do show him clothed to be,
and girt about with might.

The world is also stablishèd,
that it cannot depart,
thy throne is fixed of old, and thou
from everlasting art.

The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice;
the floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noise.

But yet the Lord, that is on high,
is more of might by far than noise of many waters is,
or great sea - billows are.

Thy testimonies every one
in faithfulness excel;
and holiness for ever, Lord,
thine house becometh well.

Psalm 93, The Scottish Psalter, 1929

Hymn 2 CH4 137
All things bright and beautiful,
all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful,
the Lord God made all them all.

Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings:
All things bright and beautiful...

The purple-headed mountain,
the river running by,
the sunset, and the morning
that brightens up the sky:
All things bright and beautiful...

The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them every one:
All things bright and beautiful...

He gave us eyes to see them,
and lips that we might tell
how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.
All things bright and beautiful...
Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895)

Hymn 3 CH4 214
New every morning is the love
our wakening and uprising prove,
through sleep and darkness safely brought,
restored to life, and power, and
thought.

New mercies, each returning day, hover around us while we pray, -
new perils past, new sins forgiven, new thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

If, on our daily course, our mind
be set to hallow all we find,
new treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

The trivial round, the common task, will furnish all we ought to ask, -

room to deny ourselves, a road to bring us daily nearer God.
Prepare us, Lord, in your dear love,
for perfect life with you above;
and help us, this and every day,
to live more nearly as we pray.

John Keble (1792-1866)

Hymn 4 CH4 336
Christ is our light! the bright and morning star covering with radiance all from near and far.

Christ be our light, shine on, shine on
we pray
into our hearts, into our world today.

Christ is our love! baptized that we may know
the love of God among us, swooping
low.
Christ be our love, bring us to turn our face
and see you in the light of heaven's embrace.

Christ is our joy! transforming wedding guest!
Through water turned to wine the feast was blessed.
Christ be our joy; your glory let us
see,
as your disciples did in Galilee.

Leith Fisher (b. 1941)

Hymn 5 CH4 470
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun

does its successive journey run;
his Kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
till moons shall wax and wane no
more.

People and realms of every tongue declare his love in sweetest song;
and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his name.

Blessing abound where Jesus reigns:
the prisoners leap to lose their chains,
the weary find eternal rest,
and all who suffer want are blessed.

Let every creature rise and bring the highest honours to our King;
angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud Amen.

*Isaac Watts (1674-1748)
